

What Happened to Kelly Ayotte?

Back in the day, Kelly Ayotte was considered a moderate. Now she's supporting Donald Trump and the Liberty Alliance. Liberty Alliance is the group that rewarded legislators who voted against feeding poor children in the summer.

Kelly Ayotte is not only posing with the chief pusher of Liberty Alliance bills, Jason Osborne. Ayotte wants to expand their taxpayer-funded school vouchers from $22 mil to $100 mil per year. Osborne's wife (right) runs a school that relies on the vouchers. Ayotte is also standing with the Moms for Liberty leader who put a $500 bounty on teachers.

And Ayotte is seeking the endorsement of Jeremy Kaufman, a man so radical that the extremist Free State Project threw him off their board. He runs the Libertarian Party of NH Twitter feed. According to the conservative NH Journal, Kaufman regularly retweets "white supremacist accounts, as well as posts about Jews controlling the world."

Ayotte poses with Moms for Liberty leader Rachel Goldsmith, Jeremy Kaufman, and Free Stater Jason Osborne

Libertarian Party NH @LPNH Follow

Anyone who murders Kamala Harris would be an American hero.

New Hampshire And Moms For Liberty Put Bounty On Teachers' Heads

Peter Greene Senior Contributor
Peter Greene covers classrooms impact of education policy and practice

Jeremy Kauffman @jeremykauffman · Sep 12
Replying to @GrStateMatters
You're on the deportation list

N of 1 @true_nof1 · Aug 7
Replying to @LPNH and @GrStateMatters
One of the most important drives of the FSP is to create a haven of freedom of association where white folks can opt out the Great Replacement. I'm a Free Stater who runs an organization that focuses on this:

Liberty+

From libertypl.us

Granite State Matters News
GraniteStateMatters.org